Eighteen officers with artillery insignia and two radio operators left the target range 2,000 meters south of Wiehe and walked toward a tent camp west of the Lossa-Wiehe road. Forty trucks, 4 x 122-mm field howitzers and 2 x 37-mm AA guns were parked along the southern border of the camp. Wooden buildings and a tent camp with a motor vehicle repair shop and a fuel dump were determined about 500 meters south of the target area south of Wiehe. Four 100-mm AT guns were in two other camps along the Lossa-Wiehe road. Numerous imprints of track-laying vehicles were noticed in the Hauerode-Beichlingen area.
